2012 MJSF Dance Award

JCC Dance School proudly announces:

Melissa Gingold

is the winner of the 2012 Maria Jones Scholarship for excellence and promise in the field of dance.

A New Rochelle resident, Melissa, 16, began ballet at JCC Dance School in 2007, performed in 3 Westchester Theater of Dance Annual Concerts, and currently takes Level 5 ballet and pointe. Melissa also dances at New Rochelle High School's PAVE (Performing & Visual Arts Education)

Program. She has studied jazz, modern and Hip-Hop, and in 2011 participated in Central Pennsylvania Youth Ballet's 5-week Summer Intensive Program. In the 'off-season,'

Melissa sings with the Westchester Chapter of HaZamir, the International Jewish High School Choir.

PAS DE DEUX CLASS AT JCC

*Highly anticipated
19th-annual event*

On Sunday, April 15, American Ballet Theatre former dancer Flavio Salazar taught a 2-hour class with 4 young men for select Level 5 JCC ballet students to practice partnering, including turns, lifts and jumps.

New! Swing Lessons

NYC Swing Dance Pro, Spencer Weisbond, will teach a 6-week beginner Swing Dance Class at the JCC Dance School on Monday evenings, June 25 to July 30, 7:30-8:45 pm. Fees: $102 series; or $25 single class.

This will be a fun class for beginners to learn basic "East Coast" Swing footwork, patterns, and techniques. Swing to the Jitter-bug and Lindy Hop while learning cool moves to classic tunes in this progressive 6-week course. Learn this grassroots street dance style, founded in Harlem in the 1930s. No partner, experience, or talent required.

Weisbond studied swing dance extensively with world champion Nathalie Gomes.
